New Business

1-Bumper Sticker and Calendar – Maggi Grace present to the committee the idea of marketing the group as a whole through

1-Rack Cards and -bumper Stickers:

Nicollette DeGroot volunteered to design the rack cards and adjust the Art Carrboro logo so that it can be used in banner and bumper sticker design. She will check with Jackie Helvey on the current status of the logos format. Once the format is determined Nicollette DeGroot will make the necessary adjustments and apply it to the rack cards and bumper sticker design.

Old Business

1- Discussion, decisions, and next steps on Carrboro Community Art Project event:

- Community Art Project theme “Carrboro” was briefly discussed and additional information was to be talked about at a meeting scheduled for Saturday, no agenda items yet set.
Committee discussed and approved by majority vote the following plans regarding the Carrboro Community Art Project.

1-Chirs Beacham will design and send Kim Andrews’s flyers in an electronic format announcing the community art project and how people can apply. By Tuesday March 11th, once the flyers are received Kim will then issue a purchase order and order 200 copies from the Ink Spot. Once these are received Kim Andrews will send out an email to the committee members for pick up.

2-The committee will pick up flyers and distribute to local venues based on the flyer distribution assignments assigned by Chris Beacham.

3-Chris Beacham will write a public service announcement informing the public of the community art project. This Public Service Announcement will be shared with all the committee members so they can send to their list serves as well as Kim Andrews list.

4- Kim Andrews will send Chris Beacham the cost of a ¼ page ad for the Mill a once a month Carrboro Citizen Publication that covers the Arts.

5-The development of a banner for further use of the Carrboro Community project will be pursued at the next meeting.

6-Monday March 26th the committee and volunteers will hang the Community Art Project in Town Hall and Century Center. Time to be determined.

Discussion/status of town employee art show event

- Jacquie Gist has mentioned the project to the town manager. Committee will work on a PSA to promote the idea and seek interest in the possible event. Kim suggested that the PAS could be included in the town employee newsletter.
