NEW! Dungeons and Dragons - Tabletop Roleplaying Camp

Dungeons and Dragons, or D&D, is a tabletop roleplaying game where you create a character and take on the role of them in a story played out over multiple sessions. The story is mostly a series of encounters and situations that you are walked through by a Dungeon Master. This could be as simple as, can you haggle down the price of this bag of holding? But can be as dire as a fight for your life against an Owlbear. Your outcomes of the game are based on dice rolls which are modified by the character stats you chose!

Instructor: Noah Basil

Fee: $165  1 week  Century Center
Ages: 11-15  307123-A  Jul 8 - Jul 12
Daily, 10:00am - 1:00pm

Intro to Mountain Biking Camp

Love mountain biking, or want to even more? Youth will first learn the mechanics of the bicycle and then the proper techniques of shifting, bracking, hill climbing and descent, body and pedal position, and navigating minor obstacles. Then we’ll take to the trails to practice our safe bike handling skills.

You will need your bike, helmet, a snack, a super-stoked attitude and some way to stay hydrated (water bottle or hydration pack). Please make sure to have a free bike safety check at Back Alley Bikes prior to camp. Instructions will be provided via email. Session C enrollment is for girls and we also welcome non-binary and non-conforming participants. Please see our inclusivity statement on page 1 or email jpoythress@carrboronc.gov for questions regarding enrollment.

Yoga Flow and Restore
The first half of this yoga class will be a deep flowing vinyasa style. Vinyasa is a style of yoga characterized by stringing postures together so that you move from one to another, seamlessly, using breath. The second half of the class you will spend time down on the mat in restorative poses, which will lead to opening the mind and body. Yoga Nidra (guided meditation)21 will be part of the final resting pose. The combination of asanas (poses), breathwork, mindfulness, strength, and flexibility will leave you feeling revitalized and balanced. This is an all levels class, and different variations of poses will be offered in order to accommodate students of all levels.

QiGong Class
QiGong is a healing art form rooted in the ancient Taoist tradition yet extremely helpful for our contemporary lives. Through slow meditative movements, breath work, and your focused attention, QiGong helps to balance mind, body, spirit. These gentle yet powerful healing practices are usually done in a standing position (like standing meditation) and promote wellbeing and connectedness. Participants in this class will learn: QiGong breathing; various QiGong movements, Taoist principles of QiGong; causes of energy blockages and QiGong practices to help clear those blockages. This style of QiGong is based in the lineage of Master Chun Yi Lin and Spring Forest QiGong. These movements can also be done sitting or lying down.

NEW! Joyful Gentle Movement with Kate Finlayson
Bring the joy of movement to all your Joints! Join movement teacher Kate Finlayson as she blends motivating, inspiring music with diverse, playful choreography. This is a unique circle class blending relaxing breath work with fun simple movements from dance, sports, martial arts and yoga to bring joyful self-expression to healthy cardiovascular exercise! Being present in our bodies with healing movement is vitally important as we age. Keeping the joints lubricated with gentle motion and activating muscular strength enhances basic ‘every day’ functioning. Other benefits include increased stability, balance, flexibility and agility which brings more comfort and ease into our lives. Kate has been teaching Nia dance and movement classes for 19 years locally and in New Orleans. She was a Nia Education Trainer for ten years, the creator of Dancing the Enneagram, and has led movement workshops all over the US, Brazil, Greece, South Africa and Nicaragua. Joyful Gentle Movement can be done in a chair or on your feet. Join in the Fun! Wear comfortable clothing to move in and bring a water bottle. Space is limited. Registration is recommended.

Golden Trails Series
This adult oriented walking group gets you out and about on local trails. The company of others, the gains from a little physical endeavor and the joys of being in a natural environment are possible rewards. A small fee helps cover accompanying staff costs. Transportation from a central point is offered or individuals can meet or follow us to the trailhead. Binoculars are always encouraged. Water is always a must bring! As with any exercise, your physician’s recommendation for your participation is encouraged. Please feel free to call Dana Hughes at (919) 918-7372 to find out more specific trail difficulty information so that you can make a good choice. Pre-Registration required for all trips.

Shallow Ford Natural Area Hike
We will be exploring the Shallow Ford Loop Trail, which is a moderate 3.3-mile trail that combines elements of four trails within the Natural area. Expect to see mature forest ad open fields, pine thickets of reclaimed farmland revealing furrows left from decades of plowing. A rich diversity of plant life that grows along the north facing slopes and the rock chimney, hand dug well and root cellar of the Tickle/Gerringer Homestead. Bring water.

Eno River State Park with Naturalist Kate Finlayson
Our April hike takes us to Eno River State Park just east of Hillsborough where this small scenic river meanders through woodlands, bottomland wetlands and varied piedmont terrain. The park’s unique habitats create opportunities to see a variety of spring wildflowers and songbirds. We will hike to scenic Bobbitt Hole, where water rushes around rocks and greenery overhangs stone-lined bluffs. This hike is an easy loop and about 1.6 miles long. Bring water and if you’d like, binoculars.

Temple Theatre “The Musical of Musicals”
A musical about musicals! In this hilarious satire of musical theatre, one story becomes five delightful musicals, each written in the distinctive style of a different master of the form. The plot: June is an ingenue who can’t pay the rent and is threatened by her evil landlord. Will the handsome leading man come to the rescue? The variations are: a Rodgers & Hammerstein version, complete with a dream ballet; a Sondheim version, featuring the landlord as a tortured artistic genius; a Jerry Herman version, as a splashy star vehicle; an Andrew Lloyd Webber version, a rock opera; and a Kander & Ebb version, set in a speakeasy in Chicago. We will stop for lunch on the way (lunch not included in price)

Jam Session Series
Ages: 11+  Fee: $3  Century Center

Celtic Jam
Tim Smith and Eileen Regan have been playing Irish music together for over 40 years, ever since they met at an Irish jam session at the “Zoo Bar” in Washington, D.C. Tim plays piano, tin whistle, Irish flute and English concertina and Eileen plays fiddle, guitar and Celtic harp. Eileen has been leading an Irish tune jam at High Strung Music in Durham for a number of years, and has even kept it going by Zoom during the pandemic. Tim and Eileen play in a band called Big Celtic Fun which has performed many times at the Carrboro Music Festival and for contra dances all over North Carolina and Virginia. They firmly believe in "big fun" and welcome you to come jam with them! Dancers and those who just appreciate listening to good music are also welcome to attend.

Zumba
The Zumba® program fuses Latin and international rhythms with easy-to-follow moves to create an exciting and dynamic fitness program. Our goal is simple: We want you to want to work out, to love working out, to get hooked. The routines feature interval-training sessions where fast and slow rhythms and resistance training are combined to tone and sculpt your body while burning fat. The great thing about the Zumba Fitness program is that it puts the fun back in your fitness program. You do not feel like you’re working out – the entire class takes on a party atmosphere that will keep you coming back for more!
